

Romans and Celts

Comparison

	Celts	Romans
Art
Battles
Beliefs and religion
Clothing
Entertainment

	Celts	Romans
Food
Houses and homes
Language
Transport
Washing

Romans and Celts Comparison

We like art, we like to make mosaics.

We like art - we like to make patterns with swirly lines and curves. The way they interweave makes them look like knots.

We have a very well organised army.

We have uniforms for our soldiers.

We fight as part of a team.

We fight for ourselves, not as a team.

We fight wearing blue body paint.

We have a lots of different gods.

We believe in more than one god.

We have religious leaders called Druids. We sacrifice food, objects and even people to our gods and goddesses.

We make offerings to our gods of coins and statues.

Men wear trousers and women wear long dresses.

We wear togas. We never wear trousers.

We like to watch chariot races and people fighting each other and fighting animals.

We like to sing songs together for fun.

We eat a basic kind of soup called broth - we like to eat fish when we can catch it.

We like to eat all kinds of animals and fish. We eat eels, dormice, poached snails and even cows udders.

We build most of our houses out of straw and horse dung.

We build most of our buildings out of stone.

We live in hillforts.

We live in towns.

We speak Latin.

We speak old Celtic.

We move our things along muddy paths.

We move our things along straight stone roads.

We get clean by washing in rivers and with large jugs of water.

We get clean in our public baths. Sometimes we have a game of dice whilst we are there too.

Romans and Celts Comparison Answer Sheet

	Celts	Romans
Art	We like art - we like to make patterns with swirly lines and curves. The way they interweave makes them look like knots.	We like art, we like to make mosaics.
Battles	We fight for ourselves, not as a team. We fight wearing blue body paint.	We have a very well organised army. We have uniforms for our soldiers. We fight as part of a team.
Beliefs and religion	We believe in more than one god. We have religious leaders called Druids. We sacrifice food, objects and even people to our gods and goddesses.	We make offerings to our gods of coins and statues.
Clothing	Men wear trousers and women wear long dresses.	We wear togas. We never wear trousers.
Entertainment	We like to sing songs together for fun.	We like to watch chariot races and people fighting each other and fighting animals.

Romans and Celts Comparison Answer Sheet

	Celts	Romans
Food	We eat a basic kind of soup called broth - we like to eat fish when we can catch it.	We like to eat all kinds of animals and fish. We eat eels, dormice, poached snails and even cows udders.
Houses and homes	We build most of our houses out of straw and horse dung. We live in hillforts.	We build most of our buildings out of stone. We live in towns.
Language	We speak old Celtic.	We speak Latin.
Transport	We move our things along muddy paths.	We move our things along straight stone roads.
Washing	We get clean by washing in rivers and with large jugs of water.	We get clean in our public baths. Sometimes we have a game of dice whilst we are there too.